BOMI International Announces New Officers

Annapolis, Maryland, June 14, 2011—BOMI International announced that its Board of Trustees elected a slate of officers to take office on July 1, 2011. Dolores A. Bocian, RPA, FMA was elected Chairman. Vyetta Sunderland, RPA, CPM, BOMI International's current Chairman, will remain on the Board as Immediate Former Chairman. Greg Grainger, RPA, CPM, CCIM was elected Vice Chairman, and Dave Fagone, RPA will serve as Secretary/Treasurer.

Ms. Bocian is a New Jersey-based Senior Property Manager with Grubb & Ellis Management Services, Inc. Previously, she was vice president of property management for Sudler Management Company, where she managed approximately 7.5 million square feet in eight states. In addition to various positions of responsibility as a Trustee of BOMI International, she is a past president of BOMA New Jersey and is an active member of BOMA International.

Mr. Grainger is the Managing Director in charge of property management operations in the Dallas region for Jones Lang LaSalle. Previously, he oversaw property management in the same region for CB Richard Ellis. Prior to that, he was with Trammell Crow Company. Mr. Grainger is Secretary/Treasurer of the BOMA Southwest Region, and is a member of the Institute of Real Estate Management and the North Texas Commercial Association of Realtors. Mr. Grainger is a graduate of the University of Texas at Tyler.

Mr. Fagone is the President of Servus Management Corporation in Hartford, Connecticut, where he is responsible for supervising, planning, and directing the daily property management operations for the four million square feet of properties under the management. He is a past president and current director of BOMA, Greater Hartford. Mr. Fagone is a graduate of Framingham State College in Massachusetts.
